The Chief Minister to move -

That the Interim Report of the Boundary Review Committee dated November 2011 be received and the following recommendations be approved -

Recommendation 1

Tynwald accepts the principle of equality of representation so that all constituencies each return an equal number of Members to the House of Keys.

Recommendation 2

Tynwald accepts the principle of equivalency across the constituencies, confirms that the allowance figure for variance should be no greater than 15%, and agrees that the relevant calculations should be based upon population numbers in each constituency.

Recommendation 3

Tynwald accepts the principle of seeking to achieve 95% of the population qualified to vote being so registered and that proposals be submitted to attain this aim.

Recommendation 4

Tynwald accepts the principle of regular review of the number and boundaries of the constituencies and agrees to the establishment, by the Governor in Council, of a permanent independent electoral committee or commission following each second general election anniversary. Such body must report to Tynwald no later than eighteen months after its appointment but be given powers to report more frequently to Tynwald if specifically required.
