FOR ORAL ANSWER

1. The Hon Member for Douglas North (Mr Houghton) to ask the Chief Minister -

Why does Manx Telecom not record ownership details of customers purchasing mobile phones?

2. The Hon Member for Rushen (Mr Rimington) to ask the Minister for Tourism and Leisure -

(1) Do standard production double-decker buses require to be modified to meet obligatory Island specifications; and

(2) if so -

(a) what is the present cost of making the modifications; and

(b) how long do the modifications normally take?

3. The Hon Member for Douglas North (Mr Henderson) to ask a Member for Health and Social Security -

(1) What is the policy of your Department on taking into care children who have been determined to be at risk;

- (2) where such children are taken into care by the Department, what is the policy of the Department on fostering them;
- (3) where the Department does foster such children, what is the policy of the Department on fostering them off the Island; and
- (4) in what circumstances do decisions of the Department to take children into care, to foster them or to foster them off the Island require an order from a Manx court?

4. The Hon Member for Douglas North (Mr Henderson) to ask a Member for Health and Social Security -

Will your Department consider providing an additional single substantial increase to the mobility allowance element of social security benefits, specifically to compensate recipients for the consequences of the recent substantial increase in the price of oil?

5. The Hon Member for Douglas North (Mr Houghton) to ask a Member for Health and Social Security -

What arrangements exist between your Department and the Post Office to allow agents of beneficiaries to collect weekly benefit payments on their behalf?

6. The Hon Member for Douglas North (Mr Henderson) to ask the Minister for Transport -

- (1) When, prior to 1999, was a structural survey of Marine Drive undertaken; and
- (2) did that survey conclude that (i) areas of the Drive were unsafe or (ii) the Drive should be closed?

7. The Hon Member for Douglas East (Mrs Cannell) to ask the Minister for Local Government and the Environment -

What methods do you propose to adopt to ensure the “minimalisation” of waste in order to comply with your Department’s Strategic Waste Management Plan 2000?
