For subsection (1F) substitute –

- (1F) (a) In this subsection –
 - (i) a "round of elections" means voting by the Keys on candidates proposed in accordance with subsections (1B) to (1D) or under subsection (1I); and
 - (ii) a round of elections is "completed" when all the vacancies have been filled or the Speaker has called for proposals under subsection (1K).
- (b) Once the Keys have commenced a round of elections then, subject to paragraph (c), that round of elections must be completed on that day.
- (c) A round of elections may be adjourned to the next day once only.
- (d) When a round of elections appears on the Keys Order Paper for a sitting then, once it has commenced, no other business may be taken by the Keys sitting alone either that day or the next day until that round of elections is completed.
