

Revd W H Martin

Chaplain of the House of Keys

Chaplain of the House of Keys, the Revd Bill Martin came to the Island with his parents in 1948. He was educated at Rushen Primary School and Castle Rushen High School in the South of the Island and came in to the ministry via the Royal Air Force at Commercial Fishing. He trained for ministry on the Diocesan Training Course and Salisbury and Wells Theological College and served his curacy at St German's Cathedral, Peel. He is currently Vicar of the Parishes of Laxey and Lonan and was appointed Chaplain to the Keys in February 2007.

