DOMESTIC ABUSE BILL 2019

CONSIDERATION OF CLAUSES

INSERTION OF NEW PART 4

Mrs Barber will move that new Clauses 3 and 4 below do stand part of the Bill. There is an amendment to the second of those Clauses, in the name of Mrs Corlett which appears at the end of the text of the new Clauses.

1. Page 38, after line 9 insert—

“PART 4 — PROHIBITION OF CROSS-EXAMINATION IN PERSON

DIVISION 1: PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURTS OF SUMMARY JURISDICTION

NC3 Summary Jurisdiction Act 1989 amended

(1) The Summary Jurisdiction Act 1989 is amended as follows.

(2) For the italic cross-heading preceding section 48 substitute—

«DIVISION 1: DOMESTIC PROCEEDINGS».

(3) After section 53 insert—

«DIVISION 2: THE PROHIBITION ON CROSS-EXAMINATION

53A Prohibition of cross-examination in person: introductory

In this Division “witness”, in relation to any proceedings, includes a party to the proceedings.

53B Prohibition of cross-examination in person: victims of offences

(1) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who has been convicted of or given a caution for, or is charged with, a specified offence may cross-examine in person a witness who is the victim, or alleged victim, of that offence.

(2) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who is the victim, or alleged victim, of a specified offence may cross-examine in person a witness who has been convicted of, or given a caution for, or is charged with, that offence.

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a conviction or caution that is spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 2001 unless evidence in relation to the conviction or caution is admissible in, or may be required in, the proceedings by virtue of section 7(2), (3) or (4) of that Act.
- (4) Cross-examination in breach of subsection (1) or (2) does not affect the validity of a decision of the court in the proceedings if the court was not aware of the conviction, caution or charge when the cross-examination took place.
- (5) In this section—

“caution” means—

- (a) a caution given by a police officer on the Island in respect of an offence which, at the time the caution is given, the person to whom it is given has admitted;
- (b) a conditional caution given under section 22 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (of Parliament);
- (c) a youth conditional caution given under section 66A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (of Parliament);
- (d) any other caution given to a person in England and Wales or Northern Ireland in respect of an offence which, at the time the caution is given, that person has admitted;
- (e) anything corresponding to a caution falling within paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) (however described) which is given to a person in respect of an offence under the law of Scotland;

“conviction” means—

- (a) a conviction before a court in the Island;
- (b) a conviction before a court in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland;
- (c) a conviction in service disciplinary proceedings (in the Island or elsewhere);
- (d) a finding in any criminal proceedings (including a finding linked with a finding of insanity) that the person concerned has committed an offence or done the act or made the omission charged;

and “convicted” is to be read accordingly;

“service disciplinary proceedings” means—

- (a) any proceedings (whether or not before a court) in respect of a service offence within the meaning of the Armed

- Forces Act 2006 (of Parliament) (except proceedings before a civilian court within the meaning of that Act);
- (b) any proceedings under the Army Act 1955, the Air Force Act 1955 or the Naval Discipline Act 1957 (whether before a court-martial or before any other court or person authorised under any of those Acts to award a punishment in respect of an offence);
 - (c) any proceedings before a Standing Civilian Court established under the Armed Forces Act 1976 (of Parliament);

“specified offence” means an offence which is specified, or of a description specified, in rules of court.

- (6) The following provisions (which deem a conviction of a person discharged not to be a conviction) do not apply for the purposes of this section to a conviction of a person for an offence in respect of which an order has been made discharging the person absolutely or conditionally—
 - (a) section 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1963;
 - (b) section 14 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2003 (of Parliament);
 - (b) section 187 of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (of Parliament);
 or any corresponding earlier Manx or Parliamentary enactment.
- (7) For the purposes of this section “offence” includes an offence under a law that is no longer in force.

53C Prohibition of cross-examination in person: persons protected by injunctions etc

- (1) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings against whom an on-notice protective injunction is in force may cross-examine in person a witness who is protected by the injunction.
- (2) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who is protected by an on-notice protective injunction may cross-examine in person a witness against whom the injunction is in force.
- (3) Cross-examination in breach of subsection (1) or (2) does not affect the validity of a decision of the court in the proceedings if the court was not aware of the protective injunction when the cross-examination took place.
- (4) In this section “protective injunction” means an order or injunction specified, or of a description specified, in rules of court.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a protective injunction is an “on-notice” protective injunction if—
 - (a) the court is satisfied that there has been a hearing at which the person against whom the protective injunction is in force asked, or could have asked, for the injunction to be set aside or varied, or
 - (b) the protective injunction was made at a hearing of which the court is satisfied that both the person who applied for it and the person against whom it is in force had notice.

53D Direction for prohibition of cross-examination in person: other cases

- (1) In family proceedings, the court may give a direction prohibiting a party to the proceedings from cross-examining (or continuing to cross-examine) a witness in person if—
 - (a) neither section 53B nor section 53C operates to prevent the party from cross-examining the witness, and
 - (b) it appears to the court that—
 - (i) the quality condition or the significant distress condition is met, and
 - (ii) it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to give the direction.
- (2) The “quality condition” is met if the quality of evidence given by the witness on cross-examination—
 - (a) is likely to be diminished if the cross-examination (or continued cross-examination) is conducted by the party in person, and
 - (b) would be likely to be improved if a direction were given under this section.
- (3) The “significant distress condition” is met if—
 - (a) the cross-examination (or continued cross-examination) of the witness by the party in person would be likely to cause significant distress to the witness or the party, and
 - (b) that distress is likely to be more significant than would be the case if the witness were cross-examined other than by the party in person.
- (4) A direction under this section may be made by the court—
 - (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of its own motion.

- (5) In determining whether the quality condition or the significant distress condition is met in the case of a witness or party, the court must have regard, among other things, to—
- (a) any views expressed by the witness as to whether or not the witness is content to be cross-examined by the party in person;
 - (b) any views expressed by the party as to whether or not the party is content to cross-examine the witness in person;
 - (c) the nature of the questions likely to be asked, having regard to the issues in the proceedings;
 - (d) any behaviour by the party in relation to the witness in respect of which the court is aware that a finding of fact has been made in the proceedings or any other family proceedings;
 - (e) any behaviour by the witness in relation to the party in respect of which the court is aware that a finding of fact has been made in the proceedings or any other family proceedings;
 - (f) any behaviour by the party at any stage of the proceedings, both generally and in relation to the witness;
 - (g) any behaviour by the witness at any stage of the proceedings, both generally and in relation to the party;
 - (h) any relationship (of whatever nature) between the witness and the party.
- (6) Any reference in this section to the quality of a witness's evidence are to its quality in terms of completeness, coherence and accuracy.
- (7) For this purpose “coherence” refers to a witness's ability in giving evidence to give answers which—
- (a) address the questions put to the witness, and
 - (b) can be understood, both individually and collectively.

53E Directions under section 53D: supplementary

- (1) A direction under section 53D has binding effect from the time it is made until the witness in relation to whom it applies is discharged.
- (2) But the court may revoke a direction under section 53D before the witness is discharged, if it appears to the court to be in the interests of justice to do so, either—
 - (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of its own motion.

- (3) The court may revoke a direction under section 53D on an application made by a party to the proceedings only if there has been a material change of circumstances since—
 - (a) the direction was given, or
 - (b) if a previous application has been made by a party to the proceedings, the application (or the last application) was determined.
- (4) The court must state its reasons for—
 - (a) giving a direction under section 53D;
 - (b) refusing an application for a direction under section 53D;
 - (c) revoking a direction under section 53D;
 - (d) refusing an application for the revocation of a direction under section 53D

53F Alternatives to cross-examination in person

- (1) This section applies where a party to family proceedings is prevented from cross-examining a witness in person by virtue of section 53B, 53C or 53D.
- (2) The court must consider whether (ignoring this section) there is a satisfactory alternative means—
 - (a) for the witness to be cross-examined in the proceedings, or
 - (b) of obtaining evidence that the witness might have given under cross-examination in the proceedings.
- (3) If the court decides that there is not, the court must—
 - (a) invite the party to the proceedings to arrange for an advocate to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness, and
 - (b) require the party to the proceedings to notify the court, by the end of a period specified by the court, of whether an advocate is to act for the party for that purpose.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if, by the end of the period specified under subsection (3)(b), either—
 - (a) the party has notified the court that no advocate is to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness, or
 - (b) no notification has been received by the court and it appears to the court that no advocate is to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness.

- (5) The court must consider whether it is necessary in the interests of justice for the witness to be cross-examined by an advocate appointed by the court to represent the interests of the party.
- (6) If the court decides that it is, the court must appoint an advocate (chosen by the court) to cross-examine the witness in the interests of the party.
- (7) An advocate appointed by the court under subsection (6) is not responsible to the party.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a reference to cross-examination includes (in a case where a direction is given under section 53D after the party has begun cross-examining the witness) a reference to continuing to conduct cross-examination;

53G Costs of legal representatives appointed under section 53F

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make provision for the payment out of the General Revenue of the Island of sums in respect of—
 - (a) fees or costs properly incurred by an advocate appointed under section 53F, and
 - (b) expenses properly incurred in providing such a person with evidence or other material in connection with the appointment.
- (2) The regulations may provide for the amounts to be determined by the Treasury or such other person as the regulations may specify.
- (3) The regulations may provide for the amounts paid to be calculated in accordance with—
 - (a) a rate or scale specified in the regulations, or
 - (b) other provision made by or under the regulations.

Tynwald procedure for regulations under this section — approval required.».
- (4) For the italic cross-heading preceding section 54 substitute—

«DIVISION 3: ORDERS IN DOMESTIC PROCEEDINGS».

DIVISION 2: PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE MATRIMONIAL PROCEEDINGS ACT 2003

NC4 Matrimonial Proceedings Act 2003 amended

- (1) The Matrimonial Proceedings Act 2003 is amended as follows.

- (2) For the italic cross-heading in Part 5 before the section specified in column 1 of the table below, substitute the Division heading specified in column 2—

Section	New Division heading
91	Division 1: Jurisdiction
92	Division 2: Rights to occupy matrimonial or civil partnership home
95	Division 3: Occupation orders
104	Division 4: Non-molestation orders
105	Division 5: Further provision as to molestation orders
115	Division 7: Supplemental.

- (3) Before section 106 insert—

«Division 6: Miscellaneous».

- (4) After section 114 (but before the Division heading preceding section 115) insert—

«DIVISION 6A: FAMILY PROCEEDINGS: PROHIBITION OF CROSS-EXAMINATION IN PERSON

114A Prohibition of cross-examination in person: introductory

In this Division —

“the court” means the High Court;

“witness”, in relation to any proceedings, includes a party to the proceedings.

Note: This Division applies only for the purposes of proceedings under this Act in the High Court. For corresponding provisions in the courts of summary jurisdiction see Division 2 of Part 5 of the Summary Jurisdiction Act 1989

114B Prohibition of cross-examination in person: victims of offences

- (1) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who has been convicted of or given a caution for, or is charged with, a specified offence may cross-examine in person a witness who is the victim, or alleged victim, of that offence.
- (2) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who is the victim, or alleged victim, of a specified offence may cross-examine in person a witness who has been convicted of or given a caution for, or is charged with, that offence.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a conviction or caution that is spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 2001, unless evidence in relation to the conviction or caution is admissible in, or may be required in, the proceedings by virtue of section 7(2), (3) or (4) of that Act.

(4) Cross-examination in breach of subsection (1) or (2) does not affect the validity of a decision of the court in the proceedings if the court was not aware of the conviction, caution or charge when the cross-examination took place.

(5) In this section—

- (a) a caution given in the Island by a constable or other authorised person to a person who, at the time it is given, has admitted the offence for which it is given;
- (b) a conditional caution given under section 22 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (of Parliament);
- (c) a youth conditional caution given under section 66A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (of Parliament);
- (d) any other caution given to a person in England and Wales or Northern Ireland in respect of an offence which, at the time the caution is given, that person has admitted;
- (e) anything corresponding to a caution falling within paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) (however described) which is given to a person in respect of an offence under the law of Scotland;

“conviction” means—

- (a) a conviction before a court in the Island;
- (b) a conviction before a court in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland;
- (c) a conviction in service disciplinary proceedings (in the Island or elsewhere);
- (c) a finding in any criminal proceedings (including a finding linked with a finding of insanity) that the person concerned has committed an offence or done the act or made the omission charged;

and “convicted” is to be read accordingly;

“service disciplinary proceedings” means—

- (a) any proceedings (whether or not before a court) in respect of a service offence within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (of Parliament) (except proceedings before a civilian court within the meaning of that Act);
- (b) any proceedings under the Army Act 1955, the Air Force Act 1955, or the Naval Discipline Act 1957 (each an Act of Parliament) (whether before a court-martial or before any other court or person authorised under any of those Acts of Parliament to award a punishment in respect of an offence);

- (c) any proceedings before a Standing Civilian Court established under the Armed Forces Act 1976 (of Parliament);

“specified offence” means an offence which is specified, or of a description specified, in regulations made by the Department after consulting the Deemsters.

Tynwald procedure for regulations under this subsection – approval required.

- (6) The following provisions (which deem a conviction of a person discharged not to be a conviction) do not apply for the purposes of this section to a conviction of a person for an offence in respect of which an order has been made discharging the person absolutely or conditionally –

- (a) section 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1963;
 (b) section 14 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (of Parliament);
 (c) section 187 of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (of Parliament);
 or any corresponding earlier Manx or Parliamentary enactment.

- (7) For the purposes of this section “offence” includes an offence under a law that is no longer in force.

114C Prohibition of cross-examination in person: persons protected by injunctions etc

- (1) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings against whom an on-notice protective injunction is in force may cross-examine in person a witness who is protected by the injunction.
- (2) In family proceedings, no party to the proceedings who is protected by an on-notice protective injunction may cross-examine in person a witness against whom the injunction is in force.
- (3) Cross-examination in breach of subsection (1) or (2) does not affect the validity of a decision of the court in the proceedings if the court was not aware of the protective injunction when the cross-examination took place.
- (4) In this section “protective injunction” means an order or injunction specified, or of a description specified, in rules made by the Deemsters.

Tynwald procedure — negative

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a protective injunction is an “on-notice” protective injunction if—
- (a) the court is satisfied that there has been a hearing at which the person against whom the protective injunction is in force asked, or could have asked, for the injunction to be set aside or varied, or
 - (b) the protective injunction was made at a hearing of which the court is satisfied that both the person who applied for it and the person against whom it is in force had notice.

114D Direction for prohibition of cross-examination in person: other cases

- (1) In family proceedings, the court may give a direction prohibiting a party to the proceedings from cross-examining (or continuing to cross-examine) a witness in person if—
- (a) neither section 114B nor section 114C operates to prevent the party from cross-examining the witness, and
 - (b) it appears to the court that—
 - (i) the quality condition or the significant distress condition is met, and
 - (ii) it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to give the direction.
- (2) The “quality condition” is met if the quality of evidence given by the witness on cross-examination—
- (a) is likely to be diminished if the cross-examination (or continued cross-examination) is conducted by the party in person, and
 - (b) would be likely to be improved if a direction were given under this section.
- (3) The “significant distress condition” is met if—
- (a) the cross-examination (or continued cross-examination) of the witness by the party in person would be likely to cause significant distress to the witness or the party, and
 - (b) that distress is likely to be more significant than would be the case if the witness were cross-examined other than by the party in person.
- (4) A direction under this section may be made by the court—
- (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of its own motion.

- (5) In determining whether the quality condition or the significant distress condition is met in the case of a witness or party, the court must have regard, among other things, to—
- (a) any views expressed by the witness as to whether or not the witness is content to be cross-examined by the party in person;
 - (b) any views expressed by the party as to whether or not the party is content to cross-examine the witness in person;
 - (c) the nature of the questions likely to be asked, having regard to the issues in the proceedings;
 - (d) any behaviour by the party in relation to the witness in respect of which the court is aware that a finding of fact has been made in the proceedings or any other family proceedings;
 - (e) any behaviour by the witness in relation to the party in respect of which the court is aware that a finding of fact has been made in the proceedings or any other family proceedings;
 - (f) any behaviour by the party at any stage of the proceedings, both generally and in relation to the witness;
 - (g) any behaviour by the witness at any stage of the proceedings, both generally and in relation to the party;
 - (h) any relationship (of whatever nature) between the witness and the party.
- (6) Any reference in this section to the quality of a witness's evidence are to its quality in terms of completeness, coherence and accuracy.
- (7) For this purpose "coherence" refers to a witness's ability in giving evidence to give answers which—
- (a) address the questions put to the witness, and
 - (b) can be understood, both individually and collectively.

114E Directions under section 114D: supplementary

- (1) A direction under section 114D has binding effect from the time it is made until the witness in relation to whom it applies is discharged.
- (2) But the court may revoke a direction under section 114D before the witness is discharged, if it appears to the court to be in the interests of justice to do so, either—
- (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of its own motion.

- (3) The court may revoke a direction under section 114D on an application made by a party to the proceedings only if there has been a material change of circumstances since—
 - (a) the direction was given, or
 - (b) if a previous application has been made by a party to the proceedings, the application (or the last application) was determined.
- (4) The court must state its reasons for—
 - (a) giving a direction under section 114D
 - (b) refusing an application for a direction under section 114D;
 - (c) revoking a direction under section 114D;
 - (d) refusing an application for the revocation of a direction under section 114D.

114F Alternatives to cross-examination in person

- (1) This section applies where a party to family proceedings is prevented from cross-examining a witness in person by virtue of section 114B, 114C or 114D.
- (2) The court must consider whether (ignoring this section) there is a satisfactory alternative means—
 - (a) for the witness to be cross-examined in the proceedings, or
 - (b) of obtaining evidence that the witness might have given under cross-examination in the proceedings.
- (3) If the court decides that there is not, the court must—
 - (a) invite the party to the proceedings to arrange for an advocate to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness, and
 - (b) require the party to the proceedings to notify the court, by the end of a period specified by the court, of whether an advocate is to act for the party for that purpose.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if, by the end of the period specified under subsection (3)(b), either—
 - (a) the party has notified the court that no advocate is to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness, or
 - (b) no notification has been received by the court and it appears to the court that no advocate is to act for the party for the purpose of cross-examining the witness.

- (5) The court must consider whether it is necessary in the interests of justice for the witness to be cross-examined by an advocate appointed by the court to represent the interests of the party.
- (6) If the court decides that it is, the court must appoint an advocate (chosen by the court) to cross-examine the witness in the interests of the party.
- (7) An advocate appointed by the court under subsection (6) is not responsible to the party.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a reference to cross-examination includes (in a case where a direction is given under section 114D after the party has begun cross-examining the witness) a reference to continuing to conduct cross-examination.

114G Costs of advocates appointed under section 114F

- (1) After consulting the Deemsters, The Treasury may by regulations make provision for the payment out of the General Revenue of sums in respect of—
 - (a) fees or costs properly incurred by an advocate appointed under 114F, and
 - (b) expenses properly incurred in providing such a person with evidence or other material in connection with the appointment.
- (2) The regulations may provide for the amounts to be determined by the Treasury or such other person as the regulations may specify.
- (3) The regulations may provide for the amounts paid to be calculated in accordance with—
 - (a) a rate or scale specified in the regulations, or
 - (b) other provision made by or under the regulations.
