Thanks Jo,

I think this is a good guideline, and I will contact Mr Lacroix about same.

In theory the £150 is to cover two people coming in for @2 hours plus a nominal amount for electric etc. If they brought 2x 23 at the same time then how about suggesting £250 as, once we know if there are any mobility issues, we would need 1-2 extra people. On this basis if you were leading them a messenger or two would be fine for ~~herding~~ shepharding purposes.

If they want to bring them at a different time in the day then it is £150 each trip, but given that it is the end of TT week I'd be thinking about whether anyone would want to come in twice or whether we will need two pairs.

Does this help? Happy to chat but not around much this afternoon.

Thanks
Jo

Hi Jo,

Before I get back in touch with Monsieur Lacroix, do you have any suggestions on cost for an additional tour.

I could suggest fielding them all in one, but being a cruise there is a good chance we will have mobility issues.

Alternatively I could bring a messenger in and use them as a shepherd.

Any suggestions gratefully received.

Paul

Good afternoon Paul,

I hope you are well?

I am delighted to confirm a private tour on the 06th June 2015 at 01.30pm.
Could you please confirm the availability?
Could you also tell me if you could accommodate a second group of 23 pax on the same day?

This reservation is for 23 pax.
Could you also give me your payment term, cancellation policy and free of charge policy?

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind regards,

Dear Amelie,

I am pleased to advise you that we could do a tour on the date you require, and as it is out of work hours there would be a single cost of £150.00p to cover staff and a tour guide.

The tour would take between 1 hour and 90 minutes in length.

Please let me know if this is agreeable to you, and advise me of your preferred time and possible numbers in your party.

Kind regards

Paul
