

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.

STOPPAGE OF IMPORTATION OF ANIMALS FROM IRELAND.

Owing to an outbreak of Foot-and-Mouth Disease having occurred in Ireland, His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has issued, under authority of the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1865, an Order dated 2nd February, 1914, prohibiting for the present, until further orders, the importation from Ireland into the Isle of Man of any Bull, Cow, Ox, Heifer, Steer, Calf, Sheep, Swine, or Goat.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,

Isle of Man,

2nd February, 1914.
