

NATIONAL INSURANCE, &c.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to appoint a Commission for the purpose of ascertaining—

- (1) whether it is desirable to introduce legislation for providing a comprehensive scheme to embrace National Insurance against Sickness, Workmen's Compensation, and Old-Age Pensions :
- (2) in the event of such legislation being deemed desirable, what scheme would be best adapted to the Island's requirements and circumstances:
- (3) what would be the annual cost of the scheme recommended.

The following gentlemen will constitute the Commission:—

His Honour The Deemster CALLOW (chairman),
J. GARSIDE, Esq., M.H.K.
W. J. CORLETT, Esq., M.H.K.
A. CHRISTIAN, Esq., M.H.K.
W. P. COWLEY, Esq., representing the Independent Order of Oddfellows (Manchester Unity).
C. H. KAY, Esq., representing the Independent Order of Rechabites.
E. T. SHEPHERD, Esq., B.A., representing the Ancient Order of Foresters.

Mr T. A. Craine (of the Government Office) will act as Secretary to the Commission, and all communications respecting the work of the Commission should be addressed to him.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,

Isle of Man,

14th April, 1914.