

LIGHTS AT NIGHT.

FARMERS and others are warned that the practice of burning gorse on the mountains, and of using lights for taking rabbits by night, should not be continued during the present War, as such a practice is prejudicial to the public interest.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,

Isle of Man,

7th November, 1914.