

ISLE OF MAN VOLUNTEERS.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has received sanction from the Army Council to raise in the Island a Third Company of The Isle of Man Volunteers to serve during the period of the War.

Men who desire to join the new company should apply to the Headquarters of the Isle of Man Volunteers, Drill Hall, Douglas.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,

Isle of Man,

28th November, 1914.