

MINES.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor desires to give warning that, in the event of a person discovering a Mine washed up on the Beach, he should not attempt to handle it but should give immediate notice to the nearest Police Station or Military Guard.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,

Isle of Man,

18th February, 1915.