

NATIONAL REGISTRATION (ISLE OF MAN) ACT, 1915.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.

---

ATTENTION is drawn to section 7 of the above-named Act, which provides:—

(1) If any person registered under this Act changes his place of residence he shall, unless such change is merely temporary, within twenty-eight days thereafter send or deliver to the local registration authority of the district in which the new place of residence is situate, by post or otherwise, his certificate of registration with the new place of residence noted thereon, and there shall be supplied to him a fresh certificate of registration, and, if his new place of residence is in a different district from that in which the previous place of residence is situate, the local registration authority receiving the certificate shall communicate the change to the local registration authority of the last-named district, and the change shall be noted in the register.

(2) Within twenty-eight days after the arrival in the Isle of Man of any person between such ages aforesaid [between the ages of 15 and 65], he shall, if not previously registered under this Act, send or deliver to a local registration authority, by post or otherwise, notice of his arrival, together with the particulars concerning himself required by this Act to be registered, and shall, if so required, attend at such place and time as the authority may appoint, and shall answer such questions as may be addressed to him for the purpose of enabling the necessary particulars to be registered, and thereupon shall be supplied with a certificate of registration.

The address of the Local Registration Authority is the Town Hall, in the case of Douglas, and the Commissioners' Office in the case of the Towns, Village Districts, and Parishes.

Failure to comply with the requirements of section 7 of the Act renders a person liable to a fine of £5, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of £1 for each day during which the offence continues.

By order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,
Government Secretary.
