HIS MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased, by Order in Council, dated the 26th April, 1920, made under the provisions of the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, to extend to the Isle of Man the Regulations, set forth below, contained in paragraph 3 of the Order of His Majesty in Council, of the 9th February, 1920, amending the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

Copies of this Circular may be obtained on application to Messrs. S. K. BROADBENT and Co., Ltd., Douglas.—Price 1d.

By Order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,
Isle of Man.

10th May, 1920.

3. In Regulation 30E after the words "A person shall not" there shall be inserted the words "except under and in pursuance of a licence granted by the Treasury."

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the experimental procedures and the tools used for data collection.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the experiments and discusses the implications of the findings. It compares the results with previous studies and highlights the unique contributions of the current research.

4. The fourth part of the document provides a comprehensive analysis of the data, including statistical tests and graphical representations. It discusses the significance of the results and the limitations of the study.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes the study and offers suggestions for future research. It discusses the potential applications of the findings and the need for further investigation in this area.

6. The final part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and a list of references. It includes a detailed bibliography of the sources used in the study and a list of the authors' contact information.
