

THE CHILDREN ACT, 1910.

Places of Detention for Children and Young Persons

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to appoint the following premises a Place of Detention, as from 1st September, 1920, under the provisions of the Children Act, 1910, for Children, and Young Persons committed for detention under that Act:--

The Isle of Man Homes for Orphan and Destitute Children, Glencrutchery Road, Douglas.

The Suite of Rooms situated in the top floor of the Court House, Douglas, will cease to be a place of Detention after 31st August, 1920.

By Order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,
Isle of Man,
14th August, 1920.