Regulations for the Prevention of the Spreading of Influenza.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR has issued a Proclamation (a copy of which is appended), under the Local Government (Consolidation) Act, 1916, embodying certain Regulations made by the Local Government Board, continuing until the 1st April, 1922, the Regulations made by the Board and contained in the Proclamation of the 18th January, 1922, with a view to preventing and guarding against the spreading of Influenza.

Any person who wilfully violates any of the said Regulations is liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

By Order,

Government Office,
Isle of Man,
1st March, 1922.

B. E. SARGEAUNT,
Government Secretary.

ISLE OF MAN } By His Excellency Major-General Sir William Fry, K.C.V.O.,
TO WIT. } C.B., Lieutenant-Governor of the said-Isle, &c., &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

The Local Government Board for the Isle of Man having made Regulations in the following terms:—

WHEREAS by Section 195 of the Local Government (Consolidation) Act, 1916, the Local Government Board may, whenever any part of this Isle appears to be threatened with a formidable epidemic disease, make regulations with a view to preventing, mitigating and guarding against the spreading of such disease.

AND WHEREAS the Board in pursuance of the said section on the 10th day of January, 1921, made regulations with a view to preventing the spread of influenza, which regulations continue in force to the 1st day of March, 1922.

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to extend the time during which such regulations should remain in force.

NOW THEREFORE, WE, the Local Government Board, in exercise of the powers conferred upon us by Section 195 of the Local Government Consolidation Act, 1916, and of all other powers us enabling, do hereby order that the said regulations remain in force throughout this Isle until the 1st day of April, 1922.

This 27th day of February, 1922.

I, the Lieutenant Governor, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby order and direct that due observance of the said Regulations be had throughout this Isle.

Given under my hand this 1st day of March, 1922.

W. FRY, M.G.,
Lieutenant-Governor.
