

FOOD AND MATERIALS COMMITTEE.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has appointed a Committee, the personnel of which is set forth below, for the purpose of investigating and from time to time reporting to him on matters relating to the supply or price of articles of food, clothing and fuel, as well as building materials, and such other articles and materials as may from time to time be determined.

His Honour the Deemster Farrant,
W. P. Clucas, Esq., M.H.K., Peel,
Mrs. T. C. Moore, St. John's and
A. O. Caine, Esq., Ramsey.

His Excellency has further appointed His Honour the Deemster Farrant to be Chairman, and Mr. W. F. Cringle of Government Office, Isle of Man, to be Secretary of the Committee.

All communications for the Consideration of the Food and Materials Committee should be addressed to the Secretary, Food and Materials Committee, Government Office, Isle of Man.

The Food and Materials Committee supersedes the Food Council appointed on the 2nd February, 1929.

By Order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.
