

National Insurance Scheme and Workmen's Compensation.

Mr. W. P. Cowley, High Bailiff of Ramsey and Peel, having resigned his membership of the Commission appointed by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor on 10th November, 1922, for considering whether it is desirable that the National Insurance Scheme in the Isle of Man should be extended to include Workmen's Compensation, the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to appoint the Attorney General to be Chairman of the Commission. He has also appointed Mr. W. C. Bridson, of Government Office, to be Secretary of the Commission in succession to Mr. H. M. Rogers, M.B.E. All communications for the Secretary should be addressed to him at Government Office.

The following gentlemen will form the Commission as reconstituted:—

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL (CHAIRMAN),
J. R. CORRIN, ESQ., M.L.C., J.P.,
J. M. GIBSON, ESQ.,
R. E. E. QUILLIAM, ESQ., J.P.,
C. S. STRANKS, ESQ.

J. W. Cowley Esq.

It is the desire of His Excellency that the Commission, in the light of statistics received in Government Office over a period of years, shall forthwith consider, and report at an early date, on the question of the desirability of extending the National Insurance Scheme to include Workmen's Compensation.

By Order,

B. E. SARGEAUNT,

Government Secretary.

Government Office,
ISLE OF MAN,
16th February, 1933.
