

H.M. PRISON.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has approved of the following Ministers visiting prisoners of their respective religious persuasions at H.M. Prison, Douglas, for the purpose of ministering to their spiritual requirements.

For Roman Catholic prisoners :	THE REV. EDWARD FORMBY, St. Mary's, Douglas.
For Methodist prisoners :	THE REV. EDGAR CALVERT, Bleng, Albany Road, Douglas.
For Presbyterian prisoners :	THE REV. JAMES JACKSON, The Manse, Somerset Road, Douglas.
For Congregational prisoners :	THE REV. ALFRED SHAVE, B.A., The Manse, Selborne Road, Douglas.

The Prison Chaplain ministers to the spiritual requirements of prisoners belonging to the Church of England.

The Gaoler, on the admission of a prisoner to the prison, other than a prisoner belonging to the Church of England, will inform the accredited Minister of the persuasion to which the prisoner belongs, that such prisoner has been received at the Prison.

By Order,

B. E. SARGEANT,

Government Secretary.
