

The Isle of Man (Customs) Act 1932

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has made an Order (a Copy of which is appended) under the Isle of Man (Customs) Act, 1932, approving of the Manx Museum, Library and Art Gallery, as a Museum for the purpose of the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 2) Order 1932, dated 12th August, 1932.

Government Office,
ISLE OF MAN,
19th October, 1933.

By Order,
B. E. SARGEAUNT,
Government Secretary.

Isle of Man
to Wit.

The Isle of Man (Customs) Act, 1932.

WHEREAS under the powers in him vested under the Isle of Man (Customs) Act, 1932, the Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Man by Order dated the 12th August, 1932, exempted from Custom duties chargeable under section (1) of such Act inter alia all articles liable to duty under such Act consigned to any Gallery or Museum under the control of a public authority or university in the Isle of Man approved by the Governor for such purpose, or any other institution or body so approved and declared by the consignee in a form approved by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to be imported solely for use as exhibits or specimens and not for sale.

NOW, I Sir Claude Hamilton Archer Hill, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Man DO HEREBY approve of the Manx Museum Library and Art Gallery which is under the control of the Manx Museum and Ancient Monuments Trustees as a museum for the purpose of the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 2) Order, 1932.

And I DO HEREBY direct that copies of this Order be sent to the Manx Museum and Ancient Monuments Trustees and the Commissioners of Customs and Excise.

Dated this 17th day of October, 1933.

CLAUDE H. HILL,

Lieutenant Governor.
