(Overtime is not paid to officers on a salary scale the maximum of which exceeds £825)

For the period commencing on the 1st May 1959 and ending on the 30th June 1960, 'Overtime' shall mean hours worked in excess of 42 hours per week, and shall be claimed only in respect of time worked after 5 p.m., except where Officers are required to work on Sundays.

With effect from the 1st July 1960, 'Overtime' shall mean hours worked in excess of 44 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours per week, and shall be claimed only in respect of time worked after 5.15 p.m., except where Officers are required to work on Sundays.

Where in any week an Officer has been absent from duty because of Annual Leave or Sick Leave or a Public Holiday the normal hours of duty in each working day of such absence shall count towards the conditioned hours in respect of that week.

No payment shall be made for periods less than 30 minutes.

No overtime shall be paid for unless it is authorised by the Head of the Department.

Claims for overtime shall be made on the prescribed form at the end of the month in respect of which it has been worked.

Government Circular No. 111/57 is hereby cancelled.

By Order,

E.R. ST. A. DAVIES.

Government Secretary.

Government Office,
Isle of Man.
