NATIONAL INSURANCE (Isle of Man) Act, 1961

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY TO CONTRACT SCHOOL TEACHERS
OUT OF THE STATE GRADUATED PENSION SCHEME

Regulation 3 of the National Insurance (Isle of Man)
(Non-Participation Certificates) Regulations, 1961.

This notice is addressed to all teachers and other persons whose employment is contributory service under the School Teachers (Superannuation) Acts.

The Governor is about to make regulations under Section 14 of the National Insurance (Isle of Man) Act, 1961, amending the School Teachers (Superannuation) Acts in certain minor respects so as to make the School Teachers Superannuation Scheme eligible for contracting out of the new graduated pension scheme introduced by the 1961 Act. The Governor being empowered by an order to be made under Section 11 of the 1961 Act to act for this purpose, hereby gives notice that he intends subsequently to elect that the employment specified in the next succeeding paragraph shall be non-participating employment for the purposes of Part II of the National Insurance (Isle of Man) Act, 1961.

The said employment is that of teachers and other persons in contributory service under the School Teachers (Superannuation) Acts, except that of those who enter such service for the first time after the age of 55 in the case of a man or 50 in the case of a woman with insufficient previous service of which account can be taken to enable them to qualify for benefits under the School Teachers (Superannuation) Acts by the ages of 65 and 60 respectively.

Persons who are over 65 in the case of a man or 60 in the case of a woman on 3rd April, 1961, will, by virtue of the 1959 Act, be ineligible to have their contributory service treated as non-participating employment.

The Registrar of Non-Participating Employments may, if he thinks fit, in the light of any representations made by or on behalf of persons to whom this notice is given, defer certification of the said employment as non-participating employment to enable the election hereby notified to be further considered.

The date of expiry of this notice is 21st March 1961.
