

GOVERNMENT CIRCULAR No. 25/62.

G.O. Reference No. L.2103/24.

Isle of Man to Wit.

By His Excellency Sir Ronald Herbert Garvey, K.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., M.B.E.,
Lieutenant Governor of the said Isle, &c., &c., &c.

LICENSING ACT, 1961

---

Licensing (No. 2) Order, 1962.

---

I. WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (1) of Section 173 of the Licensing Act, 1961, that the Governor may, by Order, provide that, during such period or periods as may be specified in the Order, the amendments to the Licensing Acts which are specified in such Order shall have effect.

AND WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (2) of the said section that the period or the aggregate of the periods in an Order made under this section shall not exceed four weeks.

AND WHEREAS it is provided by Section 104 of the said Act that the permitted hours in premises holding a Residential licence shall, on Sundays and weekdays, be as follows:—

- (a) during the summer period between 12 o'clock noon and 12 o'clock midnight for the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor to any person residing on the premises and the consumption of the same by such person ;
- (b) during the summer period between 12 o'clock noon and 10 o'clock in the evening for the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor to any person and the consumption of such liquor by such person and his guests when taking a substantial meal in a part of the premises usually set apart for the service of meals.

AND WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 3 of the said Act the summer period means the part of every licensing year which is included, inter alia, in the following period, namely—from and including the 12th day of May to and including the 30th day of September.

AND WHEREAS it has been represented to me that the permitted hours for premises holding a Residential licence should, for the year 1962, be extended to include the four weeks immediately following the 30th day of September.

NOW THEREFORE I, the said Lieutenant Governor, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the said Section 173, DO hereby Order that during the period from and including the 1st day of October, 1962 to and including the 28th day of October, 1962, the following amendment to the Licensing Act, 1961 shall have effect:—

In subsection (1) of section three for the definition of “summer period” there shall be substituted the following definition—“ ‘summer period’ means—

- (a) where such expression is used in relation to premises holding a Residential licence, the part of every licensing year which is included in the following periods, namely—the period from and including the 12th day of May to and including the 28th day of October, the period from and including the Thursday next before Good Friday to and including the second Saturday next after Good Friday, and the period from and including the 1st day of May to and including the 11th day of May; and
- (b) where such expression is used in relation to premises holding any other licence, the part of every licensing year which is included in the following periods, namely—the period from and including the 12th day of May to and including the 30th day of September, the period from and including the Thursday next before Good Friday to and including the second Saturday next after Good Friday, and the period from and including the 1st day of May to and including the 11th day of May, and this definition shall be deemed to have had effect from the 12th day of November, 1961.”

2. This Order may be cited as the Licensing (No. 2) Order, 1962.

GIVEN under my hand this 28th day of May, 1962.

R. H. GARVEY,

Lieutenant Governor.

The above Order was approved by Tynwald on 19th June, 1962.

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The effect of this Order is, in respect of the year 1962, to extend by four weeks the summer period during which intoxicating liquor may be sold, supplied or consumed on premises holding a residential licence.