

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, PORTS AND PROPERTIES

Road Races Act 1982

MANX NATIONAL RALLY ORDER 1990

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Department of Highways, Ports and Properties by sections 1 and 2 of the Road Races Act 1982 (a), and of all other enabling powers, on the application of Manx Auto Sport Limited, the following Order is hereby made:-

Citation and Commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Manx National Rally Order 1990 and shall come into operation on the 19th May 1990.

Interpretation

2. In this Order -

"the Department" means the Department of Highways, Ports and Properties;

"the Course" means the roads and sections of roads set out and described in the Schedule and includes parts of the Course;

"marshal" means a marshal appointed by the Chief Constable under section 3 of the Road Races Act 1982;

"promoters" means Manx Auto Sport Limited;

"race days" means the days specified in Article 4;

"race periods" means the periods of time specified in Article 4 when the Course (subject to Article 3) is closed to traffic in order to permit racing and purposes incidental thereto.

Closure of the Course to Traffic and Suspension of Right of Way

3. During the race periods on the race day the Course shall, subject to sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) be closed to, and the right of way thereover suspended for, all traffic other than:-

(a) persons appointed as officials for the practices and races and vehicles approved for their conveyance;

(b) constables, special constables and marshals and vehicles approved for their conveyance by the Chief Constable;

(c) motor cars, drivers and navigators thereof engaged in the practices and races and their attendants;

(d) press representatives, photographers and observers approved by the promoters who are wearing the appropriate official armband or permit issued by or on behalf of the promoters, and vehicles approved for their conveyance;

(e) such other persons and vehicles as the Department or Chief Constable may authorise in writing.

Use of Course for Motor Car Races

4. The Course may be used for motor car practices and races on Saturday 19th May, 1990 during the hours specified in relation to the respective section or until that part of the practices and races on each particular section of the course shall be officially notified as completed in accordance with Article 6, whichever shall be the earlier.

Warning Indications

5. It shall be the duty of the promoters to arrange such warning indications as the Department on the recommendation of the Chief Constable may require at the junctions of all roads which lead into the Course. Any such warning indications must be placed in position on the race day as soon as possible after the commencement of the race periods but before the Course is used for races.

It shall be the duty of the promoters to ensure that any warning signs erected are removed as soon as possible after the completion of the race periods on the race day.

Duty of Police to Notify Completion of Racing

6. On the completion of racing in each race period it shall be the duty of the senior police officer present to ensure that an official motor vehicle displaying in a prominent position a notice with the words "Roads Open" thereon shall follow the last permitted competitor in the races, and the passing of any portion of the Course by such motor vehicle shall be official notification of the completion of the races for that particular race period as regards such portion so passed which will thereupon be open again for traffic.

Prohibited Areas

7. (1) On the days and during the hours specified in relation to the respective section of the Course specified in paragraph (2) or until that part of the races on each particular section shall be officially notified as completed in accordance with Article 6, whichever shall be the earlier, no traffic shall be permitted on any of those areas of land specified in paragraph (2) and indicated by notices bearing the words 'the public is not permitted in this area'.

(2) Sections 1 and 8
