- (b) the disposal of any of the goods described in paragraph (3) by an insurer who has taken possession of them in the settlement of a claim under a policy of insurance;

if, in each case, the goods so disposed of are in the same condition at the time of disposal as they were when they were repossessed or taken into possession, as the case may be, and if a supply of them in the Isle of Man by the person from whom in each case they were obtained would not have been chargeable with tax, or would have been chargeable with tax on less than the full value of such supply.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this article shall not apply to reimported goods which were previously exported from the Isle of Man or the United Kingdom free of tax chargeable under Part I of the Act or value added tax chargeable under the United Kingdom Act by reason of the zero-rating provisions of the Act or the United Kingdom Act or regulations made thereunder, or to imported goods which have not borne tax chargeable under either of those Acts in the Isle of Man or the United Kingdom.

(3) The goods referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) are as follows:

- (a) works of art, antiques and collectors' pieces;
- (b) motor cycles;
- (c) caravans;
- (d) boats and outboard motors;
- (e) electronic organs;
- (f) aircraft;
- (g) firearms.

5. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), there shall be treated as neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services the following supplies by a person of assets of his business -

(a) their supply to a person to whom he transfers his business as a going concern where -

- (i) the assets are to be used by the transferee in carrying on the same kind of business, whether or not as part of any existing business, as that carried on by the transferor, and
- (ii) in a case where the transferor is a taxable person, the transferee is already, or immediately becomes as a result of the transfer, a taxable person or a person defined as such in section 2(2) of the United Kingdom

Act;

- (b) their supply to a person to whom he transfers part of his business as a going concern where -
 - (i) that part is capable of separate operation;
 - (ii) the assets are to be used by the transferee in carrying on the same kind of business, whether or not as part of any existing business, as that carried on by the transferor in relation to that part, and
 - (iii) in a case where the transferor is a taxable person, the transferee is already, or immediately becomes as a result of the transfer, a taxable person or a person defined as such in section 2(2) of the United Kingdom Act.

(2) A supply of assets shall not be treated as neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services by virtue of paragraph (1) to the extent that it consists of -

- (a) a grant which would, but for an election which the transferor has made, fall within item 1 of Group 1 of Schedule 5 to the Act; or
- (b) a grant of a fee simple which falls within paragraph (a) of item 1 of Group 1 of Schedule 5 to the Act, unless the transferee has made an election in relation to the land concerned which has effect on the relevant date and has given any written notification of the election required by paragraph 3(6) of Schedule 5A to the Act no later than the relevant date.

(3) In paragraph (2) of this article -

"election" means an election having effect under paragraph 2 of Schedule 5A to the Act;

"relevant date" means the date upon which the grant would have been treated as having been made or, if there is more than one such date, the earliest of them;

"transferor" and "transferee" include a relevant associate of either respectively as defined in paragraph 3(8) of Schedule 5A to the Act.

(4) There shall be treated as neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services the assignment by an owner of goods comprised in a hire-purchase or conditional sale agreement of his rights and interest thereunder, and the goods comprised therein, to a bank or other financial institution.

6. The following description of transaction shall be treated as a supply of services and not as a supply of goods -

the exchange of a reconditioned article for an unserviceable article of a similar kind by a person who regularly offers in the course or furtherance of his business to provide a reconditioning facility by that means.

Self-supply

7. (1) Where a person in the course or furtherance of any business carried on by him produces printed matter and the printed matter -

(a) is not supplied to another person or incorporated in other goods produced in the course or furtherance of that business; but

- (b) is used by him for the purpose of a business carried on by him;

then, subject to paragraph (2), the printed matter shall be treated for the purposes of Part I of the Act as both supplied to him for the purpose of that business and supplied by him in the course or furtherance of that business.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this article does not apply if -

- (a) the person is a fully taxable person;
- (b) the value of the supplies falling to be treated as made by and to that person would not, if those were the only supplies made or to be made by that person, make him liable to be registered for value added tax pursuant to the provisions of Schedule 1 to the Act; or
- (c) the Treasury, being satisfied that the tax (if any) which would be attributable to the supplies after allowing for any credit under sections 3 and 4 of the Act would be negligible, have given, and have not withdrawn, a direction that the paragraph is not to apply.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(a), a person is a fully taxable person if the only input tax of his to which he is not entitled to credit at the end of any prescribed accounting period or longer period is input tax which is excluded from any credit under section 3 of the Act by virtue of any Order made under subsection (9) of that section.

(4) The preceding provisions of this article shall apply in relation to any bodies corporate which are treated for the purposes of section 21 of the Act as members of a group as if those bodies were one person, but any printed matter which would fall to be treated as supplied to and by that person shall be treated as supplied to and by the representative member.

Relief for certain goods

8. (1) Subject to paragraph (3), paragraph (4) shall apply to the supply of any of the following goods by a taxable person, where he has taken possession of those goods in any of the circumstances set out in paragraph (2) -

- (a) works of art, antiques and collectors' pieces;
- (b) used motorcycles;
- (c) used caravans;
- (d) used boats and outboard motors;
- (e) used electronic organs;
- (f) used aircraft;
- (g) used firearms.

(2) The circumstances mentioned in paragraph (1) are that the taxable person took possession of the goods -

- (a) on a supply in respect of which no tax was chargeable under Part I of the Act or under the United Kingdom Act;
- (b) a supply on which tax chargeable under either of those Acts was chargeable in accordance with paragraph (4) or a corresponding provision made under the United Kingdom Act;

- (c) pursuant to a transaction which was treated by virtue of any Order made under section 6(3) of the Act or under the corresponding provisions of the United Kingdom Act as being neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services;
 - (d) if the goods are a work of art, an antique or a collectors' piece on their importation where (whether by virtue of article 9 or otherwise) no tax was chargeable on their importation.
- (3) Paragraph (4) does not apply to -
- (a) a supply which is a letting on hire;
 - (b) a supply if an invoice or similar document showing an amount as being tax or as being attributable to tax is issued in respect of the supply;
 - (c) any supply by a taxable person unless he keeps such records and accounts as the Treasury may specify in a notice published by it for the purposes of this Order or may recognise as sufficient for those purposes;
 - (d) a supply of an air gun unless the taxable person is registered for the purposes of the Firearms Act 1947.

(4) Where this paragraph applies, tax shall be charged as if the supply of any of the goods referred to in paragraph (1) were for a consideration equal to the excess of -

- (a) the consideration for which the goods are supplied, over

(b) the relevant amount,
and accordingly shall not be charged unless there is such an excess.

(5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (4),
the relevant amount is -

- (a) if the goods and services in question had been supplied to the taxable person, the consideration
for the supply to him;
- (b) if the goods in question had been acquired by him
from a member State, the value of their acquisition plus the tax chargeable thereon;
- (c) if the goods in question had been imported by him from a member State before 1st January 1993, the value of the imported goods plus the tax chargeable
on their importation;
- (d) if the goods in question had been imported by him
from a place outside the Isle of Man, the United Kingdom and the member States, the value of the imported goods plus the tax chargeable on their importation.

Relief from tax on importation

9. (1) This article applies to -

- (a) paintings, drawings and pastels, executed by hand, other than hand-painted or hand-decorated manufactured articles, original engravings, prints,
and lithographs, original sculptures and statuary,

in any material, which were obtained by any person (otherwise than by his producing them or by succession on the death of the person producing them) before 1st April 1973;

- (b) antiques, of an age exceeding one hundred years (except pearls and loose gem stones), collections and collectors' pieces of zoological, botanical, mineralogical, anatomical, historical, archaeological, paleontological or ethnographic interest.

(2) Tax shall not be chargeable on the importation from a place outside the Isle of Man, the United Kingdom and the member States of any goods to which this article applies.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

As from 1st January 1993 goods removed to the Island from a member State of the European Communities will no longer be chargeable to tax on importation. However, such goods may become chargeable to tax on their acquisition from a member State. Goods imported from a place outside the member States will continue to be chargeable to tax on their importation.

This Order revokes and re-enacts, with amendments, the provisions specified in the Schedule. The amendments are made in consequence of the new charging event arising from an acquisition of goods from a member State.

Article 4 re-enacts, with amendments, articles 10 and 11 of the Value Added Tax (Special Provisions) Order 1982 (the 1982 Order). It excludes from the scope of the tax disposals by mortgages, finance houses and insurers of boats and aircraft, and by finance houses and insurers of works of art, antiques and collectors' pieces and specified used goods (which will have borne tax on an earlier transaction).

Article 5 re-enacts article 12 of the 1982 Order. It excludes from the scope of the tax, in certain circumstances, the transfer of assets of a business, on the transfer as a going concern of the business, or of a part of the business which is capable of separate operation.

Article 6 re-enacts article 13 of the 1982 Order, and treats certain exchanges of reconditioned articles for similar unserviceable articles as a supply of services, and not a supply of goods.

Article 7 re-enacts, with minor amendment, article 14 of the 1982 Order. Its effect is that, in certain circumstances where a person who is not a fully-taxable person and who produces printed matter for use in his business (otherwise than by way of supplying them or incorporating them in other goods), the printed matter is to be treated as both supplied to him and by him.

Article 8 re-enacts, with amendments, articles 4 and 5 of the 1982 Order. The tax chargeable on the supply of works of art, antiques and collectors' pieces and specified used goods is, in certain circumstances, chargeable by reference to the excess (if any) of the consideration for which the goods are supplied over the cost of their purchase plus (in the case of goods acquired from a member State or imported from a place outside the member States) the tax chargeable on their acquisition or importation.

Article 9 re-enacts, with minor amendments, article 6 of the 1982 Order. It gives relief from tax on the importation of certain original works of art, antiques and collectors' pieces.
