DEPARTMENT OF HOME AFFAIRS

To the Hon. Sir Charles Kerruish O.B.E., LL.D.(hc), C.P., President of Tynwald and the Hon. Council and Keys in Tynwald assembled.

FEBRUARY 2000

1. Introduction

1.1 At the February sitting of Tynwald, the Minister for Home Affairs will be seeking approval to the following item:

(a) The Drinking in Public Places (Designated Places) (Onchan) Order 2000.

Item (a) designates two areas of Onchan as being places where drinking liquor in public will be an offence, once the individual concerned has been requested by a Police Officer not to do so. The areas in question are Onchan Park and Stadium and Port Jack Glen.

1.2 The following paragraphs explain in more detail the effects of the Order.

2. The Drinking in Public Places (Designated Places) (Onchan) Order 2000

- 2.1 This Order, which come into operation on 1st March 2000, designates two areas of Onchan as being places where drinking liquor in public will be an offence, once the individual concerned has been requested by a Police Officer not to do so. This power is in accordance with section 76 of the Licensing Act 1995.
- 2.2 The Onchan District Commissioners applied to the Department of Home Affairs to have this measure introduced and have the full support of the IOM Constabulary.
- 2.3 Areas within Onchan already designated by an Order, which came into operation on 1st December 1997, are the recreation and playing fields and the Youth and Community Centre in School Road.
- 2.4 Orders have previously been applied to designate areas under section 76 of the Licensing Act 1995 in Douglas, Peel and Port Erin.
