

Statutory Document No. 176/04

PRICE MARKING ACT 1976

THE PRICE MARKING (FOOD AND DRINK SERVICES) ORDER 2004

Approved by Tynwald

20th April 2004

Coming into operation

1st May 2004

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Isle of Man Office of Fair Trading by section 1(3) of the Price Marking Act 1976¹, and of all other enabling powers, and after consultation with such organisations as appear to it to be representative of interests substantially affected by this Order and such other persons as it considers to be appropriate, the following Order is hereby made:-

1. Citation, commencement and interpretation

(1) This Order may be cited as the Price Marking (Food and Drink Services) Order 2004 and shall come into force on 1st May 2004.

(2) In this Order -

‘eating area’ means any part of any premises specifically set aside and equipped for the consumption of food notwithstanding that some other activity may be carried on in the area in question but does not include a supply area;

‘food’ means food and drink for human consumption but does not include food which is supplied -

(a) at the express request of a purchaser in a case where the seller has not indicated that food of the same description is or may be for sale by him; or

(b) at a price agreed in advance pursuant to an order made before an intending purchaser enters the eating area, supply area or take-away area in question to obtain or consume the food;

¹1976 c.4

'premises' includes any vehicle or vessel;

'soft drink' means any non-alcoholic drink of a kind which is served cold;

'supply area' means any part of any premises specifically set aside and equipped for the supply of food in a case where an intending purchaser pays for food for consumption on the premises where it is sold before it is consumed notwithstanding that some other activity may be carried on in the area in question;

'take-away area' means any part of any premises specifically set aside and equipped for the supply of food prepared or heated at the request of a consumer or supplied as heated meals in each case for consumption off the premises where it is sold notwithstanding in any case that some other activity may be carried on in the area in question; and

'wine' means any drink obtained from the alcoholic fermentation of fresh grapes or the must of fresh grapes other than drink fortified with spirits or flavoured with aromatic extracts.

2. Revocation

The Price Marking (Food and Drink on Premises) Order 1982² is hereby revoked.

3. Application

(1) This Order applies where a person indicates that food is or may be for sale by him by retail for consumption on any premises (other than premises to which paragraph (2) applies) or in a take-away area.

(2) This Order does not apply to premises on which food is ordinarily supplied -

(a) only to members of a bona fide club or their guests; or

(b) only or mainly to members of a group determined by reference to -

(i) their employment, or the employment of a partner, parent or partner of a parent of theirs, in the service of a particular person or of one of a number of particular persons;

(ii) their membership of, or regular attendance at, an educational establishment; or

(c) only to persons for whom sleeping accommodation on those premises is provided.

²G.C. No. 92/82

4. Obligations to indicate prices for food and other charges

(1) A person who indicates that food is or may be for sale by him shall, subject to the other provisions of this Order, give an indication of -

- (a) the price for the sale of that food (except where it is sold by reference to quantity or weight);
- (b) the price for the sale of each quantity or weight where the food is sold by reference to quantity or weight, subject to paragraph (2) below;
- (c) any charge which is payable in addition to the price of any food (expressed either as an amount or as a percentage of the price); and
- (d) any minimum price or charge which is payable in respect of any food sold or service provided relating to the supply of food.

(2) A single indication of price is required by paragraph (1)(b) above where a food is sold in more than one quantity or weight if the quantity or weight to which that price applies is indicated and the prices of other quantities or weights are proportionate to the indicated price.

(3) Where foods of different descriptions are or may be for sale together (other than foods supplied as a fixed price meal) and the total price for the foods is the sum of the prices of the individual foods, only an indication of the price of the individual foods is required.

(4) An indication of the price of food or of a charge payable in addition to the price of any food which is subject to value added tax shall be inclusive of the tax.

5. (1) Indications of the price of food are required to be given in accordance with the table set out below:

Descriptions of food which are or may be for sale	Indications of price required:
Not more than thirty descriptions of food (other than wine)	For all
More than thirty descriptions of food (other than wine)	For thirty which must, if soft drinks are or may be for sale, include five soft drinks or the actual number if less than five

More than thirty descriptions of food (other than wine) divided in any way into categories	For a minimum of thirty which must include five per category or the actual number in a category if less than five. If soft drinks are or may be for sale indications must be given for five or the actual number if less than five
Wine for consumption with other foods in an eating or supply area	For five or the actual number if less than five
Foods of different descriptions for sale together as a fixed price meal	For each fixed price meal. The preceding rules in this table shall not apply to the foods contained in the meal unless they are or may be available separately

6. (1) Where an indication is given that food of a particular description is or may be for sale generally (as opposed to only in an indicated period of a day) an indication of the price of that food shall be withdrawn as soon as is reasonably practicable if the food ceases to be available.

(2) Where an indication is given that food of a particular description is or may be for sale only in an indicated period of a day an indication of the price of that food shall be withdrawn before the next such period if the food ceases to be available.

7. Manner of indication of prices and charges

(1) An indication of price shall be unambiguous, easily identifiable and clearly legible by an intending purchaser and shall comply with such of the following provisions of this article as may be applicable.

(2) In the case of an eating area, the indication shall be given at or near the entrance to the eating area so that an intending purchaser can see it before entering that area.

(3) In the case of a supply area, the indication shall be given at the place where an intending purchaser chooses the food and, if that indication cannot be seen by an intending purchaser before entering the supply area, a further indication shall be given at or near the entrance to the supply area.

(4) In the case of a take-away area the indication shall be given at the place where an intending purchaser chooses the food.

(5) Any additional charge or minimum charge payable shall be indicated at least as prominently as the price of any food to which it relates.

(6) An indication of price or charge shall be in terms of the pound.

(7) If a person indicates his willingness to accept Euros in payment for the sale of food, he shall, in addition to the price indication in the pound, either -

(a) (i) give an indication of the price of that food in Euros together with any commission to be charged; or

(ii) clearly identify the conversion rate on the basis of which the price in Euros will be calculated together with any commission to be charged; and

(b) indicate that such price or conversion rate does not apply to transactions other than in cash, the conversion rate for which will be that applied by the relevant payment scheme which processes the transaction.

MADE 10 March 2014.

Chairman

Isle of Man Office of Fair Trading

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order requires prices of food and drink to be indicated at premises where food and drink is offered for consumption on the premises. It also requires prices to be indicated at premises selling take-away food.

Article 3 defines the premises to which the Order applies with exceptions for certain premises such as members' clubs and staff canteens.

Article 4 contains detailed provisions as to the prices and charges that must be indicated.

Article 5 specifies how many prices must be indicated.

Article 7 provides for the manner in which prices and charges must be indicated.

