EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Regulations)

Isle of Man Harbours

Harbour Dues Regulations apply to the harbours vested in the Department of Transport: DOUGLAS; LAXEY; RAMSEY; PEEL; PORT ERIN; PORT ST. MARY; CASTLETOWN AND DERBYHAVEN.

Liability to pay Harbour Dues

By virtue of Chapter II of the Harbours (Isle of Man) Act 1961 it is the master or owner of the vessel who is liable to pay tonnage dues, goods dues, and passenger dues provided for in these Regulations.

Harbour Dues (Merchant Vessels) Regulations 2005

The Harbour Dues (Merchant Vessels) Regulations 2005 are to be applied with effect from 1 April 2005, in respect of tonnage dues ("vessel dues") for merchant vessels entering or lying in harbour in specified circumstances, goods dues on goods landed or shipped, and passenger dues on passengers embarked or disembarked.

Tonnage Dues ("vessel dues") on a fishing vessel, work boat or construction barge, or on a pleasure vessel or house boat, are provided for by "Fishing Vessels, Work Boats and Construction Barges Regulations" (SD no. 6/05) and "Pleasure Vessels and House Boats Regulations" (SD no. 7/05) respectively.

These Regulations replace the Harbour Dues (Merchant Vessels) Regulations 2004 (SD 28/04).

Classification of Vehicles for Goods Dues or Passenger Dues.

"Unaccompanied" and "accompanied" vehicles are distinguished for the purposes of determining whether the vehicle is subject to a goods due in its own right or is subject to a due which is supplementary to the passenger dues on the passengers who are accompanying it. Accordingly, either a goods due or a passenger due is charged in respect of the vehicle, not both.

Vehicles not carrying passengers:

If the vehicle is a goods vehicle, or a minibus or coach which is not accompanied by passengers (other than the driver and crew), a "goods due" is charged in respect of the vehicle; and there is a supplementary charge in respect of the driver and crew.

Passenger vehicles carrying passengers:

If passengers are carried in any passenger vehicle, a "passenger due" is charged in respect of them and the driver and any other crew of the vehicle; and there is a supplementary charge in respect of the vehicle.

Day-Excursion Passengers.

Separate rates of passenger dues apply in respect of passengers (and their vehicles) who are in possession of day-excursion return fare tickets.

Pleasure Cruise Passengers and Heritage Cruise Passengers

Pleasure cruise passengers are charged at a "flat-rate" of due, per vessel, per visit; and the newly-introduced due for heritage cruise passengers shall be charged at a "flat-rate" of due, per vessel, per annum.
