and 325 and Schedule 11
only.”.

Made

9th February 2005

Minister for Health and Social Security

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

1. The Social Security Act 2000 (an Act of Tynwald) enables the Department of Health and Social Security, by order, to apply to the Isle of Man, as part of the law of the Isle of Man, subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as may be specified in the order, any legislation of the United Kingdom Parliament to which that Act applies.
2. The Social Security Act 2000 applies to the Acts of the United Kingdom Parliament set out in Schedule 1 to it, which relate to social security matters (directly or indirectly).
3. In accordance with section 1(6) of the Social Security Act 2000, the Department may, by Order, amend Schedule 1 to that Act by adding to it any Act of the United Kingdom Parliament relating to social security passed during or after the 1998-1999 Session of Parliament.
4. This Order amends Schedule 1 by adding to it reference to certain provisions of the Pensions Act 2004, including those relating to State pensions, thus allowing those provisions, and any secondary legislation made under them, to be applied to the Isle of Man.
