EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order temporarily alters the restriction on the sale of liquor on a passenger vessel to allow liquor to be served as soon as a passenger has boarded the vessel, limited to three hours before the scheduled time of sailing, and for service to continue upon docking for one hour. The current provisions only permit the sale of liquor aboard a passenger vessel when the vessel is plying from place to place but not when it is in a harbour.
