EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Employed Person's Allowance (General) Regulations 2011 ("the Employed Person's Allowance Regulations").

Regulations 1 and 2 are introductory (title of the Regulations and their commencement).

Regulation 3 substitutes Schedule 5 to the Employed Person's Allowance Regulations. Schedule 5 specifies the applicable amounts of relevant child care charges for persons claiming employed person's allowance, including the relevant maxima. New Schedule 5 provides that those maxima apply in respect of each child in the claimant's family (regardless of how many children there are in the family) and that higher maxima apply in respect of any child under the age of 2 in the claimant's family than for older children.
